IRONTHREAD™

MISSION INTEGRATION & EXECUTION MODEL

IronThread™ is D&G's approach for intertwining mission owners, operators, and systems engineers from intent to outcome, so requirements, decisions, risks, and execution remain connected as the mission evolves.

PRESERVE MISSION INTENT

Keep the mission outcome and decision criteria traceable from requirement through execution.

ENGINEER ACROSS SEAMS

Bring operators, engineers, data, systems, and organizations together around the same mission problem.

GOVERN CRITICAL DECISIONS

Make key decisions explicit, traceable, and adaptable as requirements and conditions change.

BUILD ON WHAT WORKS

Use existing government processes, architectures, systems, and data rather than creating unnecessary parallel structures.
